We Help You Bring It All Together

The future is a connected market. Allflex Digital ID products make it easy to collect cow herd data for many decisions on your ranch. Plus, an industry-wide installed base of panel readers, wands and EID tags enables digital connection of seedstock and cow-calf production to feed yards and beef processors. This ecosystem helps ranchers validate quality in feeder cattle while gaining insight into finishing performance, grade and yield.

Kansas Shorthorn Futurity Sale

The Kansas Shorthorn Futurity has enjoyed a long history of involvement with the KLF Club Calf Sale, now in its 40th year. Only the steers and heifers sold through this sale are eligible to compete for $6,600 in prize money at the 2027 KJLS.

Shorthorn steers and heifers:

- Prize money will be divided equally with cash and buyer certificates*, redeemable through the Kansas Shorthorn Futurity Sale for up to two years (2026 and 2027 sales).

1st place - $1,000 2nd place - $500 3rd place - $300

Shorthorn Plus steers and heifers:

- Prize money will be divided equally with cash and buyer certificates*, redeemable through the Kansas Shorthorn Futurity Sale for up to two years (2026 and 2027 sales).

1st place - $1,000 2nd place - $500

Buyer certificates are only valid for purchases of Shorthorn and/or Shorthorn Plus cattle consigned to this sale.

To be eligible for the show back class in 2027, the ownership of the animal must not change from what is recorded at the sale on October 3, 2026. A change in ownership disqualifies the animal from the Kansas Shorthorn Futurity. Purchases made by immediate family members are not eligible for the futurity show back.

Featuring consignments from...

- Fechter Cattle Co., Howard
- Garrett Cattle, Burlingame
- Hard Cattle, Sterling
- Landrith Cattle Co., Bartlett
- Prairie View Shorthorn Farm, Seneca
- Rowley & Sons Plus 1, Chase
- Stepping Stone Ranch, Edson
