

Make the connection!

Free KLA Membership!

- ⊕ Making connections is an important part of graduating from college. Your degree and the contacts you have made at college will lead you to a successful career.
- ⊕ Getting connected with the Kansas Livestock Association will allow you to further your connections and make new ones with other successful people with similar interests.
- ⊕ KLA wants to help you get connected to your industry! KLA will give a complimentary one-year membership to any student graduating from Kansas State University, KSU College of Veterinary Medicine, Fort Hays State University College of Agriculture or a Kansas community college. (Offer good only if you continue to reside in Kansas.)
